

Bianco Salento

Grape Variety: Fiano and Malvasia

Alcohol Content: 12.5%

Region: Puglia

Producer: Amastuola

Vinification

The grapes are harvested during the night. The grapes are de-stemmed and sent via stainless steel pipeline to a vacuum soft press, the must is transferred to tanks of a maximum capacity of 300HL with equal height and diameter, where it takes place the fermentation.

Tasting Characteristics

Pale straw and bright with greenish light Aroma: delicate and attractive aromatic traits with light floral tones of acacia and wood of rose, with hints of pear and citrus and notes of wild herbs Flavour: Smooth and fresh with lively acidity and a pleasant citrus and floral end

